

Ann Cameron Mathewson, 57, of London, died December 10, 2005 in The James Canter Center. She was born on November 26, 1948 in Columbus, a daughter of Robert V. and Betty (Sanor) Cameron. Ann was a graduate of The Ohio State University where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority and the Student Union Advisory Board. She was the Law Library Coordinator at Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur. Member of the Junior League of Columbus, the Women's Self Government Associates, T.W.I.G. of Children's Hospital, Coover Society, the Book Club and Mother's Club of London. Graduate of Upper Arlington High School and a member of First Presbyterian Church. Ann was a dedicated, loving mother, and caring friend who loved being with her family, and enjoyed and looked forward to the holidays. Survived by her mother of Columbus; son, Jeffrey (Tracy) Mathewson; daughter, Lana Mathewson and friend Travis Williamson, all of London; grandchildren, David and Jacob Michel Mathewson; sister, Carol Amos of Columbus; nephews, Matt and Elliott Amos. Preceded in death by her father. Family will greet friends at the RADER-LYNCH & DODDS FUNERAL HOME, London, Wednesday 3-8 p.m. and one hour prior to memorial service Thursday 11 a.m. at First Presbyterian Church, London. Contributions to Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation or Arthur G. James Cancer Center. Envelopes will be available to that funeral home.