

Sandra Louise Cenicerros (Goodman)

*March 30, 1948 ~ September 12, 2015
(age 67)*

Sandra Louise Goodman Cenicerros (Dailey), 67, of Columbus, Ohio passed in sleep at her home on Saturday, September 12, 2015. An Ohio native, born in Columbus on March 30, 1948 and preceded in death by her parents Max Lee and Helen Louise (Jennings) Dailey.

Sandra attended Upper Arlington Schools through 1965 and graduated from London High School in 1966. She received her RN degree from Springfield Community Hospital in 1969. She was a Lieutenant JG of the US Navy Nurse Corps from 1969-1973 where she served during the Vietnam War. She enjoyed a successful career in nursing, hospice care, what she called “end of life mid - wife” and her volunteer “Spiritual Care Provider”.

She is survived by her husband, Dave E. Cenicerros; two daughters, Alisa (Jamie) Belskis of Mexico, ME and Melissa Goodman of Gorham, ME; grandchildren, Maia Belskis, Taylor Belskis, Leela Goodman, Evelyn “Evie” Goodman, and the first grandson, Isaac Goodman, is expected January 2016. Also survived by two sisters, Jackie Sexton, Catherine (John) Penrose; three brothers, Lynn Dailey, T (Ellen) Dailey and Tim (Kelli) Dailey.

Sandra loved worshipping God with “expressive dance” and was a beautiful intercessor for the Lord. She loved serving her local community, especially one on one sessions known as her “parking lot ministry”.

“I am but a pencil in the hands of God” Mother Teresa
